

Mission Statement

Generating hope through women's health and empowerment.

"I'm so happy to have discovered Hope for Our Sisters, a local group of caring and committed people who are doing so much for women so far away. The strength of Hope for Our Sisters is our connection to women in Angola, Nepal, and Congo to help them realize their potential. I'm proud to support their work that provides life-changing surgeries for women and the prevention message that can impact entire communities for generations."
